of instructional, infrastructural and other prescribed norms and standards. These institutions are required to adhere to these norms and standards while running these courses. In respect of the State owned institutions, the respective State Governments periodically monitor the performance and condition of these institutions. The Central Government also provides financial assistance to some of the state-owned institutions for incurring certain recurring and non-recurring expenditure.

(b) and (c) Institutions which intend to run teacher training courses apply in a prescribed manner to the concerned Regional Committee of the NCTE. The Regional Committees grant recognition to teacher training courses in accordance with the Regulations and other prescribed procedure.
